

Contract Recruiting

The use of contract recruiting resources can often be an extremely cost effective way of staffing. This will allow you to increase your recruiting resources when needed without the burden of adding a full time employee for what may be a relatively short term staffing initiative. Different staffing requirements may present a need for recruiters with different areas of expertise; so whether you're hiring an executive vice president or an office administrator, part-time or full-time, our specialized contract and executive recruiters offer the experience you need and comprehensive recruiting strategies tailored to meet your specific needs.

The use of contract recruiting resources can often be an extremely cost effective way of staffing. This will allow you to increase your recruiting resources when needed without the burden of adding a full time employee for what may be a relatively short term staffing initiative. Different staffing requirements may present a need for recruiters with different areas of expertise; so whether you're hiring an executive vice president or an office administrator, part-time or full-time, our specialized contract and executive recruiters offer the experience you need and comprehensive recruiting strategies tailored to meet your specific needs.

Our Contract and Executive Recruiters offer comprehensive recruiting services which include but are not limited to; meeting one-on-one with your hiring manager, creating bold and exciting job descriptions, aggressively networking and searching for qualified candidates, interviewing and submitting in-depth summary's on each candidate, scheduling, background and reference checks, offer negotiation, relocation and general HR employment details.

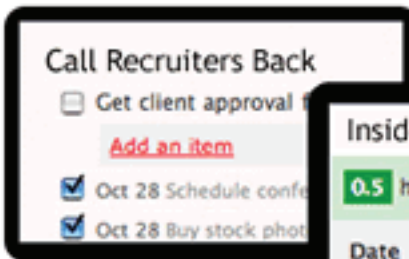

As a value, add we also give our contract recruiters access to all of the recruiting resources we have in place, and all candidate data that we have built over the years. We want our contract recruiters to be successful so we provide them with all the tools needed to get the job done right to include access to all of the major job sites, databases, market research and recruiting horsepower of our organization.

*Get a recruiter + access to all of the candidates we have in our database at no added cost!
(Over 100,000 Colorado candidates & Growing)*

★ free for all clients!

Streamline The Recruiting Process

Make to-do lists

Time Track

Share Resumes

More>>

